

The NAS Annual Conference

12th November 2005

Action Stations, Portsmouth

The 2005 NAS Annual Conference will provide an opportunity to discuss research, review the archaeological activities of members and exchange ideas.

Confirmed Speakers

Connie Kelleher

Underwater Archaeology Unit,
Dept. of Environment,
Heritage and Local Govt, Ireland

Lucy Blue

Centre for Maritime Archaeology,
Southampton

Robert Parthesius

Amsterdam Historical Museum,
Amsterdam

Anton Englert

Viking Ship Museum, Roskilde

Waldemar Ossowski

Polish National Maritime Museum,
Gdansk

Nic Flemming

National Oceanography Centre,
Southampton

Iain Grant

Hazardous Project

Michael Gibbons

Irish Heritage Council

Christopher Dobbs

Mary Rose Trust, Portsmouth

Jens Auer

Wessex Archaeology

Joe Flatman

Institute of Archaeology,
University College, London

ENGLISH HERITAGE

A.D.M.A.T.

The
MARY
ROSE

SUDUS
CONSULTING

A Tudor Evening at the Mary Rose

Following the conference, the NAS is offering an exclusive Tudor Evening at the Mary Rose.

Visit the Mary Rose ship hall, enjoy a tour of the museum, a private viewing of a film about Henry VIII's flagship and a 10 course authentic Tudor Banquet – all served by Tudor wenches in costume.

Sunday Excursions

The Elizabethan Extravaganza

Dive an Elizabethan Merchantman (1574) in Horsea Island; speak with the adoptee and Wessex archaeologist, Jens Auer and see video-footage of the recovery. The morning comes complete with Elizabethan tea and buns! From 10am.

Follow in Nelson's Footsteps

Take a guided walk around historic, maritime Portsmouth while recounting the life and times of this marvellous man and maritime aspects of this city. From 1:15pm.

Registration costs Prices given are for members/non-members of the NAS.

Conference, day sessions only	£20/£25
Fresh buffet lunch	£10 flat rate
A Tudor Evening at the Mary Rose	£50/£60
Elizabethan Dive Extravaganza	£10/£15
Walking Tour of Nelson's Portsmouth	£7.50 flat rate

To make your booking contact the NAS on +44 (0) 23 9281 8419, nas@nasportsmouth.org.uk or visit us at www.nasportsmouth.org.uk/news/conference2005.php

